OVERVIEW

This program will change the way you think about leadership and it will offer you new and profound tools to lead in teams or larger organizations.

The program will be run by one of the world's best educators in the adaptive leadership field and it will expose the participants to a powerful experiential learning methodology developed at Harvard University to increase people's capacity to lead. After the program participants will have much deeper understanding of how to lead in complex situations, how organizations and people operate and what it means to lead in today's complex world. After the program, participants will be better able to act and think about their organizational and individual change and will have more effective options to deal with their challenges in the future.

The program is the essential must-attend for people aspiring to lead in today's complex world. It will provide the participants with a solid, concise and practical overview of the Adaptive Leadership framework developed at Harvard University.

This program is AMP track - for alumni & partners

The Advanced Management Program (AMP) brings our mission of creating world-class education by providing our alumni and partners with access to world-class executive education. AMP is a unique opportunity to have top business school level education and certification that would normally require foreign enrollment and travel. Our AMP is delivered on three levels: master class, advanced, essential and is grounded in leadership capacity development.

Join us. Partners typically join in the context of HR, PR, CSR, Employer Branding or Public Affairs activities.
